ED IBARGUEN LESSON OPPORTUNITIES AND PROGRAMS

2018

Where, How, and What: Lessons are given within a private teaching area on the Duke University practice range. Lessons may be arranged by calling 919.681.2340 for individual scheduling. Ed has spent the last 37 years in a journey of how people can best learn a motor sport like golf. Through this decades long study of Golf instruction, training, coaching, as well as observing the historically popular theories, methods, systems, and philosophies of the great teachers, he is clear on one thing: THERE IS NO ONE WAY FOR ALL STUDENTS! Instead he uses all of his knowledge and experience to teach the individual according to body type, physical abilities, available practice time, and desired golfing goals. Blend that with a mantra of, “If it’s not FUN, it’s not worth doing” and you have a learning environment that creates and encourages individual success in this greatest of sports. Depending on the student needs and the lesson objectives, Ed uses TRACKMAN Technology, JC Video & V1 Software Systems, Apple iPad Video, super high speed Casio F-1 Video Camera when required, and literally dozens of training aids when applicable.
