Nathan Parry has been a member of our 'Getting Better Every Day' team since February 2016. He believes he has the "best job in the world" and finds fulfillment in helping people of all ages and skill levels simplify the game of golf. He easily relates to junior golfers because he was a competitive junior golfer on the North Carolina circuit. Nathan has many outstanding qualities as a teacher/coach. He has an easy going, upbeat personality that puts all his students at ease. His natural curiosity blended with his strong work ethic are the perfect ingredients required for teachers who understand they must never cease to learn.

Nathan attended his first three years of undergraduate education at Appalachian State University in Boone, NC, then finished his final year at North Carolina Central University earning a Bachelor's Degree in Recreation Administration in December 2020.

Nathan turned professional in May 2019 and registered for the PGA Associates Program in September 2020 where he is already on the final level of the program. He has selected to achieve his PGA Class 'A' in the Teaching and Coaching career path. He utilizes FLIGHTSCOPE X2 Elite radar technology.

Duke University Golf Club is excited to have Nathan join our excellent PGA Professional teaching staff.

Lessons are given within a private teaching area on the Duke University practice range. Lessons may be arranged by sending an email to np111@duke.edu
