Professional Credentials

John Clinton is a dedicated golf instructor with a teaching philosophy centering on tailoring instruction to each golfer’s unique physical and mental traits, emphasizing that he teaches people—not a system. He particularly enjoys helping beginner, junior, and senior golfers learn the game and improve their enjoyment.

Mentored by PGA Hall of Fame Instructor Ed Ibarguen, along with Chad Gibbs and Joe Plecker. Jack embraces the principle of helping every golfer “Get Better Every Day.”

A former law enforcement officer of 33 years and a 9/11 World Trade Center first responder, he values golf as an escape from daily stress and is passionate about helping others experience those same benefits. In addition to his golf expertise, John is a United States Bowling Bronze Level Coach and often integrates the shared movement patterns between golf and bowling into his instruction.
